The ideal applicant is...

- Skilled at researching and identifying grant opportunities that align with our mission
- A strong writer with the ability to craft persuasive narratives and clear, well-structured proposals
- Detail-oriented and highly organised, able to manage timelines and meet deadlines reliably
- Comfortable working independently while also collaborating effectively within a fast-paced team

You will get...

- First-hand experience with the grant application process and donor communications
- Ownership of your work and the chance to lead on key projects from day one
- A platform to make a tangible impact by helping scale access to top education globally
- Insight into how a fast-growing social impact organisation operates behind the scenes
- Access to a global community of driven, talented, and supportive students

The position is an unpaid, volunteer role that will require 3-5 hours of work per week, with flexibility during busy times of year (e.g. during exams).

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to get in touch with Aakansha, our Global Director of Operations (aakansha.das@projectaccess.org).
